Navigating FultonHistory.com

FultonHistory.com or Old Fulton NY Postcards, is a free, historic newspaper website that contains archives of over 50 million pages of microfilmed newspaper images (mostly New York State newspapers, along with collections from other states and Canada). This presentation will give an overview of the content and a variety of search strategies.

These techniques can be used when conducting searches on a variety of websites, not just FultonHistory.com, AND you would be surprised how many references can be found on this site to Warren County, Ohio, and the people who lived here! There IS a reason we include a link to this site on our own website. – Jo Roth

Presented by Jeanette Sheliga

Jeanette Sheliga of Jeanette's Genealogy lives in Lockport, New York, and has been researching her family tree since 2002 and lecturing since 2011. She has had the privilege to speak for societies and libraries locally and virtually all over the world. Jeanette is the President of the Virtual Genealogical Association (VGA); she holds positions in local, state, and national societies; she has completed the study groups of ProGen 49 and Certification Practicum 02; and has attended many genealogy institutes.
